From Tuesday November 21, to Saturday November 25, 1749.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d Day of November, 1749.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

His Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable George Dunk, Earl of Halifax, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Northampton, and the Right Honourable Francis, Earl Brooke, to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Warwick, their Lordſhips this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

This Day Lieutenant General John Huske was, by His Majeſty's Command, ſworn Governor of His Majeſty's Iſland of Jerſey.

Florence, Nov. 14, N. S. On the 12th Inſtant the Regency received an Expreſs, with Diſpatches from the Governor of Leghorn, to inform them, that on the 11th Inſtant, a Genoeſe Settee and a Xebeck Cruizer, chaſing two Xebeck Pirates from Tunis, an Engagement enſued in Sight of that Port, in which the Tuneſines, being overpowered, endeavoured to take Shelter under the Protection of the Cannon of the Towers along the Eaſt Coaſt of Leghorn, but they were cloſely purſued by the Genoeſe, within Reach of the Cannon of the Tower of Antignano; and though the Tower fired conſtantly againſt the Genoeſe, they carried off one of the Tuneſine Xebecks; her Crew conſiſted of about 80 Men, out of which 52 eſcaped by ſwimming to ſhore, who were received by a Detachment of Soldiers, both Horſe and Foot, from the Garriſon of Leghorn, and immediately ſent to the Lazzeretto, to perform Quarantine; the reſt were either killed or made Priſoners by the Genoeſe. The other Xebeck made her Eſcape, during the Engagement, and got into the Harbour of Leghorn. In Conſequence of this Irregularity on the Part of the Genoeſe, on the 11th at Night the Governor of Leghorn ſent a Detachment of Grenadiers, diſtributed in divers Boats, to ſecure the Maſters and Part of the Crews of all the Genoeſe Veſſels then in the Port; the former, in Number upwards of 60, were ſent to the Caſtle, and the latter to the common Jails. The Rudders and Sails of the Veſſels were likewiſe taken away to prevent their Departure, in order that a proper Satisfaction be given for the Inſult committed within the Emperor's Juriſdiction.

Genoa, Nov. 17, N. S. Some Days ago arrived here four French Gallies from Antibes with the Infanta of Spain, Dutcheſs of Parma; on her Arrival ſhe was ſaluted with 100 Cannon, and her Daughter with 41. Six Gentlemen and ſix Ladies of the firſt Families were deputed by the Republick to compliment her Highneſs on her Arrival, and to wait on her during her Stay here. Two Days ago arrived here an armed Bark and a Xebeck belonging to this State; they have been out upon a Cruize againſt the Turks, and have brought in two Prizes, one of them a Tuneſine, which they took near Leghorn, which ſome Advices from thence ſay, was under the Cannon Shot of a little Caſtle, on which Account the Governor of Leghorn ſeized upon all the Maſters and Mariners of all the Genoeſe Veſſels that were in that Port, and intimated to the Republick's Conſul, that neither the Men, nor the Veſſels, ſhould be ſet at Liberty till the Tuneſine Veſſel was reſtored. On the Receipt of this News, an extraordinary Council was held by this Government, at the breaking up of which, three Couriers were diſpatched, one to Vienna, one to Rome, and the other to Paris. It appears by the Examinations which have been taken from the Commanders and Officers of the two armed Veſſels, as well as from the Maſters of other Veſſels which were in Sight, that the Tuniſine was not within two Gun-ſhot when ſhe was taken; and Letters of the 14th Inſtant, juſt received from Leghorn, ſay, that the Regency of Florence had not approved of the Governor's Behaviour in this Affair, and had ordered that the Maſters and Mariners ſhould be ſet at Liberty, and put in quiet Poſſeſſion of their Veſſels.

Madrid, Nov. 17. Their Catholick Majeſty's have fixed upon the 22d Inſtant for the Return of the Court to this Place, in order to paſs the Winter at the Buen Retiro. This being the Anniverſary of the Birth-day of the Infanta Donna Maria Antonia, who enters into the twenty-firſt Year of her Age, their Catholick Majeſties received the uſual Compliments from the Foreign Miniſters and Perſons of Diſtinction on that Occaſion. It is expected that the Marriage between this Princeſs and the Duke of Savoy will be declared in a ſhort Time. On the 14th Inſtant M. de Carvalho, late his Portugueſe Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Court of Vienna, was preſented to their Catholick Majeſties by the Vicount de Ponte de Lima, the Portugueſe Ambaſſador at this Court; and on the 16th M. Carvalho, with his Lady and Family, left this Place in order to return to Lisbon, where, it is ſaid, a very conſiderable Employment will be conferred upon him. A Contract of Marriage is agreed upon between Don Nicolas de Carvaſal and Lancaſter, Uncle to the preſent Duke de Linares and Alrantes, and Brother to his Catholick Majeſty's Miniſter of State, Colonel of the Spaniſh Guards, who ſerved in Quality of Lieutenant

Lieutenant General with great Diſtinction during the late War, and the Counteſs Dowager of Lemos, only Siſter to the Duke de Bejar.

Hague, Nov. 27, N. S. The Prince of Orange arrived laſt Saturday at Groningen. The Dutch Weſt India Company are come to a Reſolution of following the Example of the ſeveral Colleges and the Eaſt India Company here, in placing his Serene Highneſs at their Head; the Diploma is already preparing for that Purpoſe, which is to be preſented to his Highneſs in a Gold Box, by a formal and numerous Deputation from that Body, by which he will be conſtituted chief Governor, ſupreme Director, and perpetual Preſident of their Company; this will be done immediately upon his Highneſs's Arrival at the Hague, which is expected to be in a Week or ten Days Time. The States of Holland continue their Aſſembly, and are in conſtant Deliberation upon the Method of ſettling Affairs for the ſubſequent Year.

The States General of the United Provinces having, at the Beginning of this Year, raiſed a conſiderable Sum of Money, by Way of Loan, amongſt the Merchants of the City of London, upon an Aſſurance, that both the Principal and Intereſt ſhould be paid at or before the End of the next enſuing Year, 1750; M.
